

CALL FOR ARTISTS!

5th Annual Between the Lines Juried Art Show: "The Briar Club"

The Springfield-Greene County Library District invites artists to create 2D and 3D artworks for an exhibition inspired by the 2026 One Read book selection, "The Briar Club" by Kate Quinn.

Exhibition Dates: April 1-25, 2026, at the Park Central Branch Library

Drop-Off Dates: March 27-28, 2026, 10 a.m.-6 p.m.

The show is focusing on themes from the book, including:

- Americans
- Betrayal
- McCarthyism/Cold War
- Female relationships
- 1950s
- Secrets
- Postwar life

Please submit your work by filling out this Google Forms link: Between the Lines: "The Briar Club"

Submission Process

Submit up to five digital images of actual works you hope to have selected for the exhibition on the Google Form. Name each file with your first initial, last name and piece title (example: JSmithTitle). Please include dimensions, media, frame type, if applicable, and retail pricing in your form.

An anonymous jurying process will select artists. All submissions will be notified of acceptance or rejection by Friday, March 13. All participating artists are expected to drop off works between March 27-28, 10 a.m.-6 p.m. at the Park Central Branch Library. For more information regarding the show, contact Andrew Mann at andrewman@thelibrary.org or call 417-831-1342.

Artwork Restrictions

- 2D artwork (including dimensions of the frame) cannot exceed 36".
- 3D artwork cannot exceed 12" long x 12" wide x 24" high.
- All 2D artworks must either be framed or on gallery-wrapped canvas with painted edges.
- Hanging the art requires that the piece be wired with D-rings, attached at least one-third from the top of the frame.
- Artwork must weigh no more than 50 lbs.

An opening reception will be held during the First Friday Art Walk at Park Central Branch Library on Friday, April 3, 2026, from 6:30-9 p.m. Prizes will be awarded for Best of Show, People's Choice, and Best 2D, 3D and Digital Art.
