You've received the following form submission from the CONTACT US form on the Tiling page of your website - <https://www.dc-ceramics.co.uk>.

Message: Hi there

Hope you don't mind me dropping you a line - we're looking for a quote for replacing our existing tiled flooring in the kitchen and hallway of a ground floor flat in Oxford.

The floor sizes are as follows:

Kitchen: 0.65x0.75m = approx. 0.5m<sup>2</sup>

Hallway - approx 5.7m<sup>2</sup> (measured in three sections of 152x120cm, 205x135cm and 95x115cm due to irregular shape of hallway).

We would need the existing tiling lifting and removing before new tiles are laid.

Would you be able to let us know if you undertake this kind of work and if so, an approximate quote and timescale?

Please let me know if you have any questions, and many thanks in advance,

Stuart.
